

Economic justice / Green economics

The cake can't keep getting bigger.

So fairer slices

Conventional economic growth, at least that depending on increased use of resources, is not possible if the world is to be sustainable.

The clear implication of this is that there has to be a fairer distribution of income and wealth – nationally and globally.