

Shannon Airport's role as US military transit point should be shunned - the Irish government does not even know what comes through, e.g. drones?