

Effective nonviolence in the 21st century

- Taking your campaign forward

With Javier Gárate of the War Resisters International (WRI) as the resource person, “Effective nonviolence in the 21st century – taking your campaign forward” will take place as a residential at Kilcranny House, Coleraine, from 6pm on Friday 14th October through to 6pm the following day, Saturday 15th October.

As well as input from Javier there will be an opportunity for people to work together in small groups on their particular interests and campaigns. The fee for the residential is £35 (concession rate £25) and bookings should be made to INNATE. Please contact us with any queries.

To book: Please send the following information; 1) Your name 2) Your contacts including postal address, phone and e-mail 3) Any special needs or other comments 4) Your booking fee payable to ‘INNATE’.

Travel information will be sent to those who book or see the Kilcranny House website at <http://www.kilcrannyhouse.org/> under ‘About us’.

Bookings to: INNATE, 16 Ravensdene Park, Belfast BT6 0DA. Queries to e-mail innate@ntlworld.com or phone 028 (048 from Republic) 90647106.

●Meanwhile Javier Gárate will speak at a meeting in the Irish School of Ecumenics (ISE), Antrim Road, Belfast on “Effective nonviolence in the 21st century” – same main title as the residential but without the sub-title. This will take place from 2–4pm on Thursday 13th October and is open to people outside the ISE – those wishing to attend should contact Caroline Clarke on reconsec@tcd.ie

Javier Gárate is from Chile and works for the War Resisters International based in London. His exploration of Indian non-violence can be found on the INNATE website under ‘Readings in Nonviolence’ for April 2011—see www.innatenonviolence.org and go to ‘Readings’.
