

BITS AND PEACES

CELEBRATING IRISH PEACE MOVEMENT HISTORY

Online seminars, 17th and 24th November 2021

both at 7.30pm.

1) Weds 17th November – Peace work on Northern Ireland

2) Weds 24th November – Irish work on international peace issues

We don't always celebrate or remember the important work which we and others have been involved with – and yet an incredible amount has been done, and much achieved. This is an attempt of record some of that peace history. The format of these seminars will be a number of people speaking briefly for 8 - 10 minutes about a particularly memorable event or experience, followed by small group discussion. The platform will be Zoom.

Speakers on Northern Ireland are: Ann Patterson, Anne Carr, Derick Wilson, Geoffrey Corry, Mari Fitzduff and Michael Doherty. Their involvements include the Peace People, Women Together, Corrymeela, Glencree, community relations, and the Peace and Reconciliation Group in Derry.

Speakers on international peace issues are Joe Murray, John Lannon, Patrick Comerford, Peter Emerson, and Sylvia Thompson. Their background includes Afri, Shannonwatch, CND (both in the North and the Republic) and peace and ecology.

A resources list of publications and weblinks will be circulated to participants (with an opportunity for additions to be made....). Presentations will be recorded but not the discussion.

●TO BOOK: 1) Send an e-mail to innate@ntlworld.com clearly stating whether you wish to attend the first, second or both seminars. 2) Please also indicate if you wish to be in a discussion group with a particular speaker and we will try to facilitate this.
