

THE TRIPLE LOCK

= IRISH
neutrality

The Black Shamrock is used as an Irish symbol of resistance to involvement in warmaking – including USA military use of Shannon Airport .

Removing the 'Triple Lock' on the deployment of Irish soldiers on operations overseas could enable the Irish government to commit them to fighting wars rather than peacekeeping. Defend neutrality – defend the Triple Lock!